CHARLES MORGAN

AUGUST BELMONT

The Retriever Hall of Fame, part of the National Bird Dog Museum, is devoted to the preservation of the history and culture of all types of retriever sporting dogs. Within our walls, we honor and memorialize some of the most prestigious champion retrievers, as well as their owners, handlers, and trainers. We do this by collecting works of art and memorabilia, including trophies, decoys, calls, firearms, boats, clothing, and books.

To safeguard and showcase the history and art of our sport for future generations, the Retriever Hall of Fame needs your support. This support can take many forms:

- Donations of memorabilia pertaining to dogs, owners, handlers or trainers of all the retriever breeds.
- The contribution of historical records or information.
- Financial support for the improvement of the Retriever Hall of Fame's exhibits, to maintain the building it is housed in and to inspire the interest of future generations.

Make your tax deductible contribution today.

Pat Burns ELITE Retriever Training eliteretrievers.com

Childhood friends, husband and wife, parent and child; all relationships are forged from trust, love, respect and work. It's not a reach to say the same holds true about the bond between handler and dog. It takes those same elements of trust, love and respect to successfully train your dog to be an elite retriever whose performance shines on both field and off. Training your retriever begins with giving you, as a handler, the tools necessary to build your confidence in that role. Amazing canine athletes are not simply born. Champions are the end result of many hours of dedicated training and practice, as much for the handler, as for the dog, itself. Let us help get you started with training at one of these locations across the country...

OVERVIEW OF TRAINING AND TEST SITES

TRAINING & TEST SITE GUIDELINES

Our thanks to the landowners who have opened their farms and grounds to us. Please be respectful and careful with everything you do. Leave the properties as you found them. If you meet a landowner make sure you thank him or her. Without their generosity, there would be no training grounds or test sites.

Training areas will be allocated each day by lottery drawing starting Sunday evening November 6, through Friday November 11. The drawing will take place at the Holiday Inn Express at 6 PM every evening.

General Guidelines:

- All printed directions are from Event Headquarters, Holiday Inn Express in Bonham.
- Relying solely on street addresses may send you down dirt roads. We encourage you to use the maps, Google directions, and your eyes.
- Stay on roads and the edges of fields whenever possible. Be careful where you park.
- Pack out trash, including all shot gun shells.
- Close all gates that you open.
- Obey posted speed limits.
