

For the purposes of this Judge's List, we have included Alaska in the Pacific Time Zone.

This is a US time zone map not considering daylight savings time or national club "region" geography.

This will give your club a general location for choosing future judging assignments.

Too Many Trials ... 2020! Not Enough Judges?

This is the third study of the AKC retriever field trial judges pool. Most of us will find the judges lists that follow, sorted by point ranges and time zones, very useful in selecting judges for our events. The Judges List when used in conjunction with the annually updated Five-Year Corresponding Date Trial Calendar on the Retriever News website will become two superior tools for selecting judges into the future. Both can be found on Retriever News website.

New for this year, readers will find the judges lists demonstrate the most active judges measured by recent participation with three, two, one or no asterisks. Three asterisks (***) means they judged in the last year (2019), two asterisks (**) means they judged between 2017 and 2018, one asterisk (*) means they have judged between 2015 and 2016. Those without any asterisks have not judged in the last five years or more – clearly not active or participating any longer. (Careful pairing should be considered using inactive judges (or handlers) in major stakes where the absence exceeds a few years.) You will also find a list of judges active in the last year with 20 or more points – thank you for being on this list!

We believe this study is the foundation data for our retriever field trial sport as the active judge is the common denominator for everything that happens in the sport. For the sport to continue to flourish, the amateur volunteers and especially the judges must be abundant and sufficient in number to support the events. We observe the number of clubs, events and stakes is increasing while the number of judges is relatively level or declining. The health of the sport depends on what you consider important in the National data and also what region you are reviewing.

In 2013, there were 1,597 judges with an AKC judges number and by 2019 the total number dropped to 1425. More importantly, in 2013 there were 1,022 judges active in the prior five years, while in 2019 we recorded 940 active judges working in last five years. In 2019, there were 549 judges with one or more All-Age assignment in the prior twelve months out of the 1425 total AKC judges list and 1,022 active with one assignment in the prior five years. These ratios have been pretty consistent since we have evaluated the judges pool. The following table summarizes some of this information.

	2013	2016	2019
Judges w/ Numbers	1597	1504	1425
5 yr span didn't Judge	575	515	485
5 Year Active Judges	1022	989	940

There are many ways to measure our sport. Many of us "feel" the sport based on the loss of acquaintances or the vibrancy of younger people joining training. We believe we can say the sport is roughly the same size or larger than it was ten to twelve (even twenty) years ago with some increases and decreases in activity for single years. Comparing two years is not a trend and tiny data sets like this are always troublesome to evaluate. But our data are not declining dramatically or even swinging widely, however the pressure on the quality judging pool is obvious as events have been increasing vs a nationally level or regionally declining pool.

The crystal ball is very cloudy as the Covid-19 response varies across the country. The light-hearted comment shared recently was that we "dog people" are socially distant anyway. Right now, most retriever field trial events are canceling as "stay at home" orders are activated by various States and Federal authorities. It's not unprecedented for events to cancel, as we recall the history books regarding the Midwest RC almost canceling a National Retriever Club Championship venue during World War II gas rationing. It was a contentious issue!

The following quote is used by permission from “The History of Retriever Field Trials in America – The Early Years: 1931-1941” by Fred Kampo and Carolyn McCreesh. (For a copy: email Fred Kampo at kampspruce@aol.com)

“Following the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor and America’s entry into World War II, the trial scene receded in importance. Gas rationing cut into trialers’ ability to travel long distances. Others felt that the train system should be used only for military purposes. Many of the professional trainers entered military service, as did a number of the owners. Magazines, such as the AKC Gazette, eliminated their coverage of individual trials. In 1942, Madison, Wisconsin was the site of the second National Retriever Championship. Members of the Midwest Club protested against staging the trial and argued from the basis of patriotism. They held that gas and other resources that contestants would use to attend the trial should be used for the war effort. Additionally, the small field would cheapen the title, a title they had worked hard to establish. Nevertheless the 1942 National Championship Trial went on as scheduled and 25 dogs competed in the event which “Shed Of Arden” won.”

Our National Clubs are faced with similar circumstances today as there are so many uncontrollable issues to consider!

While the number of clubs and events are increasing, it’s obviously being done with clubs being comprised of fewer people as more amateurs are migratory and organized around professional trucks with more frequency. So finding “quality” judges remains difficult, but equally obvious is the difficulty for many clubs to put up a seasoned field trial committee. The properly selected field trial committee member is educated regarding the rules and trial procedures – they have confidence in their knowledge of the game and they are comfortable helping judges comply with rules and required conditions while setting up an event. They should at least know when to call on the chairman or engage the committee with judges regarding test set up and the rules being followed. They consider if they could to properly follow and participate in a complaint hearing. Too many committees are comprised of folks that are not yet ready to tackle these duties – they sit silent, ignorant or point to participants to “do something!” Or worse, they timidly approach the judges and state that the competitor, Johnny Appleseed, doesn’t think what they are doing is proper. If you want to see an improvement in trials, educate and improve the field trial committee membership and contributions to events along with properly pairing judges!

Number of Clubs Nationally
Year	# of Clubs
2000	134
2005	139
2010	149
2015	146
2019	152

The adjacent tables show that over the past twenty years most aspects of the sport we can measure are growing (clubs, events, all age stakes, minor stakes). There is evidence this growth is in the Central and Eastern zones and the Mountain and Pacific zones are level or contracting.

Number of Field Trial Stakes
Year	Open	Amateur	Qualifying	Derby	Total
2000	213	213	228	235	889
2005	213	213	233	233	892
2010	238	238	250	277	1003
2015	243	240	274	253	1010
2019	254	252	237	273	1016

For 2019, there were 254 Open stakes held in the country. 2019 Open Stakes by Region looks at where those Open stakes were held:

2019 Open Stakes by Region
Region	FT Event
Central	113
Eastern	71
Mountain	26
Pacific	44
Total	254

And here is a table 2019 Open Stakes by Club/Region showing the number of clubs in each region hosting at least one Open stake:

2019 Open Stakes by Club/Region
Region	Clubs
Central	70
Eastern	39
Mountain	16
Pacific	27
Total	152

The regional separation of judges who earned at least one major stake point in 2019 follows, of course the numbers trend with the number of clubs and events regionally.

The following three tables show judges earning one or more major points as sorted by region, looking back at one, three and five year activity periods from 2019. Said another way, this is Judges Active During 2019, Judges Active During 2017-2019 and Judges Active During 2015-2019. The consensus that active judges produce better trials is pretty obvious if we listen.

Our message from 2013 and 2017 is still important today. If you want to help improve the state of the judging pool please think about the following:

1. If you are an experienced judge, please consider offering to judge a minor stake to help educating our upcoming judges and to ensure their quality with the quality of our minor stakes at the same time.
2. If you are a newer judge, insist on judging with a recognized and experienced judge.
3. If you are on a Field Trial Committee – work hard to pair judges properly and try to support the concept of mentoring newer judges.

Continuing education will be the key – the community needs to find a regular and active process for education of all of our judges.

Looking Beyond 2020 ...

1. Continuing Education is still a critical task for the community and we hope that Retriever News and it's volunteer contributors will continue to help lead the education of judges. Since 2014 the Retriever News, with the help of very few volunteers, has published nearly 40 articles on judging, rules and procedure.
2. We hope amateurs understand they must try to judge at least three times each year and especially to volunteer for the minor stakes. To improve minor stakes while mentoring less experienced judges will be critical to the evolving judges pool.
3. We encourage clubs to select field trial committees properly constructed with seasoned field trial members along with properly pairing judges. Strong field trial committees that are available and engage with judges regarding conditions and rules are perhaps the most direct path to a improved trial experience!
