Welcome

Welcome to Pre-National Training in the Mission Valley

We have worked hard to provide you with the best training grounds available in the Mission Valley. All of the training grounds are located within a reasonable distance from the headquarters hotel. Please abide by any and all landowner requests and use their property as if it were your own. Please do not leave anything behind, including dead birds. There will be a dumpster for dead bird disposal available where you pick up the live birds.

When you see the property owners thank them for their generosity. Please be careful during the week.

Please be aware that all Training and Test sites are under Tribal Stage 1 Fire Restrictions due to the dry conditions this year. We are advised by the Lake County Sheriff that there is to be NO SMOKING except inside vehicles or in areas cleared of vegetation three feet in every direction. No grilling or campfires on Training sites. Gas BBQ's may be used on Test sites only with permission of the Grounds Committee Chairman.

Sincerely,
Tom Vaughn
President, National Amateur Retriever Club

Welcome to the Mission Valley

Welcome to the snow-capped Mission Mountains and the communities of the Mission Valley that have welcomed the 2015 National Amateur. I'd like to thank everyone who helped make this event possible, including our judges, our army of volunteers, our sponsors, the landowners who have opened their properties to pre-National and National use, and the many local businesses that have supported this event. Please support the advertisers that have helped make this Training Grounds Directory possible.

I hope you find the Training Grounds Directory useful. I'd like to thank the group that put it together: Alice Woodyard – Editor, Cynthia Howard – Advertising Editor, Tina Styan of Retriever News, Vicky MacLean and Deb Tirmenstein for their many hours of hard work.

Best of luck to all our contestants.

Yours truly,
Linda Harger
Chairman, 2015 National Amateur Retriever Championship

In human sport, elite athlete's health surrounding competition - from training to game day - is supported by a team of highly trained specialists in sports medicine, sport training, and physical therapy. This team is an essential part of an athlete's performance from health maintenance, fitness, and injury prevention. They also are important in injury diagnosis, treatment, and recovery. There is no doubt that the field trial dog is an elite athlete and as such they also need the support team to maintain their health and fitness as well as deal with injury that occurs from competing at such a high level.

The National Amateur and National Retriever Championships are the epitome of the sport. Dogs that qualify need to be at their peak to compete and finish the 2 weeks of rigorous training and competition. Because of the intense nature of the competition there is no time when the FT dog needs their support team more. This support team not only consists of handlers, trainers, and owners, but also veterinarians there to deal with any minor or major health issues that may compromise their performance.

This year the National Amateur and National Retriever Championships will also have a specialized team available on site to address and treat any sport related injuries and illness of competing dogs. Dr. Jennell Appel and Dr. Jennifer Brown are practicing veterinarians, who are certified canine rehabilitation therapists and specialize in the field of canine sports medicine. They have both recently founded mobile sports medicine practices, which service canine athletes throughout Florida and Georgia.

K-9SportsVet was founded by Dr. Jennifer Brown of Tampa, FL. In addition to having competition retrievers, Dr. Brown is a K-9 Search Specialist and Team Veterinarian for FEMA Urban Search and Rescue FL Task Force-2. She is a Diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Surgeons and started her career as an equine surgeon. Her work with elite equine athletes is bringing a unique perspective and skill-set to benefit her canine patients, which is now the focus of her practice - canine sports medicine and rehabilitation. Dr. Brown's canine diagnostic ultrasound expertise has been called upon by some of the top canine veterinary sports medicine clinics in the country.

The mobile unit for K-9 Sports Vet has the capability of providing patients with diagnostic ultrasound, digital radiography, anesthesia, as well as stem-cell, PRP, and joint injection therapy. It is also set up to stabilize any critical illness and injury with physiologic monitoring, oxygen therapy, and IV fluids.

SportVet Canine Rehabilitation and Sports Medicine Mobile Clinic was founded by Dr. Jennell Appel, providing expertise in orthopedic and soft tissue injury. Dr. Appel has been involved in the field of canine rehabilitation since 2002 and specializes in orthopedic/neurological disorders, postoperative rehabilitation, sports medicine, athletic conditioning and injury prevention. SportVet Mobile provides treatment to canine athletes, focusing on accurate diagnosis, return to sport centered treatment plans, and emphasis on injury prevention. SportVet services three veterinary hospitals throughout the panhandle of Florida, providing weekly orthopedic/rehabilitation consultations and treatments for pet dogs, as well as athletes. The mobile unit also travels to numerous retriever field trials and hunt tests throughout Florida and Georgia, servicing athletes in the field of competition.

A wide variety of services will be available to all competitors at the National Amateur and National Retriever Championships by both K-9 Sports Vet & SportVet.

Training Properties

A HUGE thank you to the landowners who have opened their ranches and training properties for pre-national training. Please be respectful and careful with these properties.

Properties are open from 7 am to 6 pm unless otherwise noted on the individual property page. ATV's allowed unless otherwise noted on the property page.

Please observe the following rules and courtesies when using these properties. Check the individual property pages for special instructions and concerns.

- Leave gates as you find them.
- Speed limit is 4 mph past buildings and homes.
- Due to fire danger, smoking inside vehicles only (Tribal law).
- Fill in holes that staked-out dogs dig. Carry rake and shovel!
- Drive and park vehicles where they will not make ruts.
- Please control barking – landowners have neighbors!
- Pick up all trash including your empty shells.

And of course... safe shooting at all times!

All properties have both land and water except the Van Voast Fields, which are land only, with possible water in Van Voast site 5.
